What began in Hopewell in 1915 as a small hospital located over a family drug store is now a fully licensed, 147-bed hospital located in Hopewell at the confluence of the Appomattox and James rivers; only a short drive away from many places in the Tri-Cities and Chester area. At John Randolph Medical Center, you will find that our clinical services reflect the warmth and personalized atmosphere of a small-town hospital, but with the sophistication and cutting-edge technology found only in much larger urban hospitals.
